

Building on our Heritage to Pioneer a New Era of Care

Pfizer Satellite Symposium at the International Society on Thrombosis and Haemostasis (ISTH) 2017 Congress

Individualising treatment and redefining physical activity to optimise joint health

Monday July 10th 2017

13:15–14:30

Budapest Room,
Messe Berlin GmbH

Chair: Robert Klamroth (Germany)

Berlin Olympic Stadium

AGENDA

TIME	TOPIC
13:15	Welcome and introduction Robert Klamroth (Germany)
13:25	Individualised approaches to treatment: the role of pharmacokinetics in supporting patient lifestyles Gerry Dolan (UK)
13:45	Optimising outcomes in haemophilia care: the role of physical activity Sébastien Lobet (Belgium)
14:05	Joint health maintenance over the long-term: the use of ultrasound as a real-time decision making tool Carlo Martinoli (Italy)
14:25	Panel discussion Robert Klamroth (Germany)
14:30	Meeting close

Towards a new era in haemophilia care

Wednesday July 12th 2017

13:15–14:30

Budapest Room,
Messe Berlin GmbH

Chair: John Pasi (UK)

House of World Cultures

AGENDA

TIME	TOPIC
13:15	Welcome and introduction John Pasi (UK)
13:25	The secret life of FIX: where are we now? Gerry Dolan (UK)
13:45	Thinking outside the factor: the future of non-factor based haemophilia therapy Andreas Tiede (Germany)
14:00	Towards endogenous prophylaxis: gene therapy Thierry VandenDriessche (Belgium)
14:20	Panel discussion John Pasi (UK)
14:30	Meeting close

These symposia are sponsored by funding from Pfizer

PP-BEN-GLB-0014 / PP-HEM-DEU-0207 Date of preparation: April 2017

Haemophilia